New York, May 8.—The week in the grock market began with unmistakable signs of a further reaction from the long sustained buil movement. For the first full session in about four weeks, dealings tell under the million-share level, barely aggregating 975,000 shares.

At no time was the buying power a match for the selling, a considerable part of the offerings emanating from professional interests. News over the weeksional interests. News over the weeksional interests. News over the weeksional interests was mixed, but partly of a sort to invite an extension of the short nesses mean of the recent broad investment inquiry from out of town sources.

Industrial developments were conflicting. Three of the largest oil producing and refining companies posted higher prices for gasoline and bunker oil, while sharp reductions were announced in four well known types of automobiles.

St. John, N. B. May 8—The St. John rowing association has under consideration the sending of Hilton Belyez, of this city, New England and Canadian single scull champion, to England to compete for the diamond sculls at Henley early in July. Belyea is to leave tomorrow for Philadelphia to prepare for a special race on the Schuylkill river. His new shell, named St. John shell named St. John, was completed late Saturday. It weighs 29 pounds nine pounds less than any he raced in last year.

The greater part of the buying of wheat appeared to be covering on the part of the shorts, and based to some extent on a decrease of nearly 5,000,000 bushels in the supply on ocean passage. Besides it was generally anticipated that the domestic supply total would show a falling off. The fact that shipments from here Saturday were larger than the receipts tended likewise to encourage a little buillah sentiment.

Assertions that 2,000,000 bushels of wheat would leave Kansas City for Chicago this week had much to do with a sudden out transient downward swing in the wheat market during the middle of the session. Furthermore, some sales of wheat to go little storage here were announced. Later, however, it developed that today's receipts here had been overestimated, and instead of amounting to 400 carloads were actually 246. Export sales of 400,000 bushels at the seahcard and vessel charters here for 270,000 bushels to Buffalo helped further to send the market upward again in the late dealings. Deliveries here on May continued. the market upward again in the late dealings. Deliveries here on May con-tracts were $69,000 hushels of wheat. Forecasts of rain together with visi-ble supply decreases and talk of export business gave firmness to corn and oats.
